Humour: A new group of male applicants had just arrived in heaven. Peter looked them over and ordered, "All men who were henpecked on earth, please step to the left; all those who were bosses in their own homes, step to the right." The line quickly formed on the left. Only one man stepped to the right. Peter looked at the frail little man standing by himself and inquired, "What makes you think you belong on that side?" Without hesitation, the meek little man explained, "Because this is where my wife told me to stand."

Trivia: Who instituted the sacrament of Penance?

Jesus himself instituted the sacrament of Penance when he showed himself to his apostles on Easter day and commanded them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained. Nowhere did Jesus express more beautifully what happens in the sacrament of Penance than in the parable of the Prodigal Son: We go stray, we are lost and can no longer cope. Yet our Father waits for us with great, indeed, infinite longing; he forgives us when we come back; he takes us in again, forgives our sins. Jesus himself forgave the sins of many individuals; it was more important to him than working miracles. He regarded this as a great sign of the dawning of the Kingdom of God, in which all wounds are healed and all tears are wiped away. Jesus forgave sins in the power of the Holy Spirit, and he handed that power on to his apostles. We fall into the arms of our heavenly Father when we go to a priest and confess.

Fourth Week of Lent

During the Lent season, Stations of the cross will be every Friday starting at 6:30pm followed by mass.

There will be no morning mass on Friday's during Lent.

How do I face the two sons, that is, shadow and light, firstly, in my own life, then, in my family or in my place of work? How ready am I to embrace the two, for a better tomorrow, without stagnating myself on passing judgment or condemning?

The younger son, adventurous, rebellious and wasteful; yet, it took that very experience to discover and appreciate the depth of his father's love. Indeed, it's when I'm face to face with my own limits and poverty do I stop taking things for granted -I begin to count on God's bounty. Or I may be like the elder son, apparently solid, well-behaved and compliant yet distant from the father. Not only is he intolerant when his father welcomes the younger son but somehow, he goes further even to disown him when he reproaches the father saying: "when this son of yours came back". He just can't bring himself to say my brother. It may be, unfortunately, a similar case in our families too.

Delegation to Rome

Dear brothers and sisters, during these days of the Special Delegation to Rome, delegates from the Assembly of First Nations, Métis National Council,

Inuit Tapiriit Kanatami, and Church representatives will meet with Pope Francis. We are urged to pray with particular devotion for the lasting success of this encounter with the Holy Father. The prayers of those in our Archdiocese are offered for the reconciliation and healing of our communities and are joined to those of the delegates and officials in Rome.
