Pentecost Sunday

After Jesus's resurrection, He presented Himself alive by many convincing proofs, appearing to His disciples and many others over a period of forty days and speaking of the things concerning the kingdom of God (see Acts 1:3). Before the Savior returned to be with His Father,

He spoke intimately with His disciples telling them, "...behold, I am sending forth the promise of My Father upon you; but you are to stay in the city (Jerusalem) until you are clothed with power from on high" (Luke 24:29). Shavuot (Pentecost) (Lev 23:9, 15-21), biblically referred to as the Feast of Weeks, was fulfilled precisely on divine schedule in Jerusalem exactly fifty days after the Feast of Firstfruits. It is written, "When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly there came from heaven a noise like a violent rushing wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting. And there appeared to them tongues as of fire distributing themselves, and they rested on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit was giving them utterance" (Acts 1:1-4). This Feast marks the outpouring of the Holy Spirit called Ruach HaKodesh in Hebrew, as a deposit of His holy presence, power and grace in His redeemed disciples. Yahveh would have a new covenant, it would not be written on stone tablets but engraved on their hearts and in their minds (see Jeremiah 31:33). The Holy Spirit also gave them the power to obey and uphold the Almighty's commandments and to receive His promised covenant blessings as they walked in obedience to His teachings (Torah) and commandments.

On the Day of Pentecost (Acts 2:1-4), also known as the Feast of Harvest, three thousand Jewish souls were brought into the kingdom of Yahveh as a summer harvest. Their hearts were pierced asking Peter, "what do we do to be saved? And Peter quoting Joel said, "and it shall be everyone who calls on the name of Yahveh will be saved" (Acts 2:21). After the great outpouring of the Ruach HaKodesh, we read accounts of the disciples "living, moving, and having their existence in the Spirit" (Acts 17:28) allowing Yahshua (Jesus) to manifest His glory in signs and wonders, in words of truth that set the captives free, and opened the blind eyes, in order to complete the work that He began on this earth. The Ruach HaKodesh is the Spirit that separates. It literally separates us out of this world, out of commonness, out of profane things, out of worthless things, unto the holy and the precious. It is written, "When the Helper comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, that is the Spirit of truth who proceeds from the Father, He will testify about Me, and you will testify also..." (John 15:26-27). We must testify about the great and awesome salvation that has been given to us. "Therefore, we are ambassadors for Messiah, as though Yahveh God were making an appeal through us; we beg you on behalf of Messiah, be reconciled to God" (2 Corinthians 5:20).

Humour: Father O'Malley got up one fine, spring day and walked to the window of his bedroom to take a deep breath from the beautiful day outside, and noticed there was a jackass lying dead in the middle of his front lawn. He promptly called the local police station.

The conversation went like this: "Top o' the day to ye. This is Sergeant Flaherty. How might I help ye?" "And the rest of the day te yerself. This is Father O'Malley at St. Brigid's. There's a jackass lying dead in me front lawn. Would ye be after sending a couple o' yer lads to take care of the matter?"

Sgt. Flaherty considered himself to be quite a wit, and the rest of the conversation proceeded: "Well now, Father, it was always my impression that you people took care of the last rites!"

There was a dead silence on the line for a moment, and then Father O'Malley replied, "Aye, that's certainly true, but we are also obliged to notify the next of kin!"

Trivia: What is Holy Eucharist?

Holy Eucharist is the sacrament in which Jesus Christ gives his Body and Blood – himself – for us, so that we too might give ourselves to him in love and be united with him in Holy Communion. In this way we are joined with the one Body of Christ, the church.
