2 Corinthians 9:7

THANK YOU & GOD BLESS YOU

St John Lateran's Basilica in Rome is the "Mater et Caput", 'Mother and head', of all churches in Rome and the world. This fact is solemnised by the relief that adorns the entrance to the Basilica.

The name "Lateran" is derived from the fact that this Basilica was constructed on the territory that belonged to the Lateran family before it was bequest as an inheritance to Fausta, the wife of the Emperor Constantine. The Basilica was consecrated by Pope Sylvester I on the 9th November 324 and the liturgical feast of the Basilica, which is celebrated on the same day, commemorates this event. This feast has a special importance because the Lateran Basilica was the first church dedicated to the Most Holy Saviour under the express wishes of the Emperor Constantine. The entire Church celebrates this feast as an affirmation of unity with the Pope who is the Bishop of Rome and Head of the Universal Church.

The existence of the Basilica testifies to Constantine's vision of the cross in the sky which turned out to be a prodigious event that profoundly changed the practice of Christianity during the first centuries.

The Emperor himself initially dedicated the Basilica to the Most Holy Saviour in gratitude for the victory. Only later, when the Basilica was also dedicated to Saints John the Baptist and the Evangelist, did it become known by its most popular name as St John Lateran.

The importance of the feast of the 'dedication of the Lateran Basilica' celebrates the fact that Christians could freely come together in union with their Bishop to celebrate the liturgy of the Church and receive the teaching of the doctrine of the faith. From antiquity, the Basilica became the Cathedral of Rome and the world. The Pope has his Cathedra or Chair here as a sign of his teaching, his magisterium and his precedence. Therefore, the Petrine ministry is only initiated when the elected Pope has taken possession of the Chair of St John Lateran.

This beautiful edifice represents the Church – the assembly formed of the 'living stones' of Christians who today, as in centuries past, continue to testify their faith in Jesus Christ, the Most Holy Saviour.

Humour: An elderly gentleman had serious hearing problems for a number of years. He went to the doctor and the doctor was able to have him fitted for a set of hearing aids that allowed the gentleman to hear 100%. The elderly gentleman went back in a month to the doctor and the doctor said, "Your hearing is perfect. Your family must be really pleased that you can hear again." The gentleman replied, "Oh, I haven't told my family yet. I just sit around and listen to the conversations. I've changed my will three times!"
